

Attacks on London: Clash of Civilizations or Reaction to the War on Iraq?

A Book Reading with Milan Rai, author of
"7/7: The London Bombings, Islam and the Iraq War"

Milan Rai is a peace activist and the author of: •Chomsky's Politics, •War Plan Iraq: Ten Reasons Why We Shouldn't Launch Another War On Iraq, and •Regime Unchanged. His latest, 7/7: The London Bombings, Islam and the Iraq War was published in April 2006 by Pluto Press.

Milan co-founded the direct action and information group ARROW (Active Resistance to the Roots Of War) in 1990, the British branch of Voices in the Wilderness in 1998, and Justice Not Vengeance in the aftermath of the 2003 invasion of Iraq. He went on four sanctions-breaking delegations to Iraq between 1998 and 2001. Milan was the first person to be arrested for breaking the economic sanctions on Iraq for taking children's medicines to Iraq without an export license.
